

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in (trusts in, clings to, relies upon) him should not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16)

*"He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him (Jesus) who for their sakes died and rose again."
(2 Corinthians 5:15)*

In the beginning, man and woman enjoyed a loving relationship with God. There was no death, disease, sorrow, or pain. It was paradise!

But one day they turned from God and chose to govern themselves. The consequences were the introduction of death, disease, sorrow, and pain. All of humanity became affected by their grave error. Their relationship with God as they knew it was severed. It is broke God's heart.

Helpless to undo what they had done, God, motivated by His love, and at a cost to Himself, came to the rescue by making it possible for the relationship to be restored, and for all to have eternal life. He sent His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ to satisfy justice, to bear the blame and the punishment for our sins (rejecting/ignoring God and His ways). He took our place.

All who personally receive Jesus Christ are forgiven for their sins, enter into a relationship with God, a new kind of life, and receive the promise of eternal life. Their eternal future is described in the Bible:

“Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more.

The first things have passed away.”

(Revelation 21:3-4)
